READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their results, as bronchitis, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. King, M. D., of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Medical College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula and guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

A booklet of extracts from eminent medical authorities, endorsing its ingredients mailed free on request. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

HEART'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

William Randolph Hearst yesterday formally accepted the democratic nomination for Governor of New York in a letter addressed to W. J. Conners, chairman of the democratic State committee, and made public in Elmira late yesterday.

"I accept the nomination of the democratic party, bearing in mind the record of that great party in the past and knowing that the membership of the party is determined still to be ruled by the principles of Jefferson and Jackson and guided by democracy's ideal, the greatest good for the greatest number."

"True democrats must stand with Jefferson and Jackson for the best interests of the whole citizenship rather than for the selfish interests of any party, class or individual seeking for special privilege."

"It cannot be denied that certain individuals and classes have at times secured control of the machinery of the democratic party and attempted to use it for their own personal or class profit. The duty of true democrats is to deprive of all authority within the party those who represent only special interests and who seek to promote such interests at the expense of the general welfare."

"The democratic convention at Buffalo did this thing in a most conspicuous and effective manner. Democrats, as called, but seekers after special privilege in reality, were driven over into the republican party, where those of their class flourish."

"The line is now clearly drawn between special privilege on one hand and equal opportunity on the other. The democratic party, purged in this State of corruption control and pledged to end the boss control through which corporations act, now has an opportunity to serve the people as efficiently as it did in the times of Jefferson and Jackson."

"To serve the people and the party today as efficiently as in the days of Jefferson and Jackson it is only necessary to be sincerely democratic and loyal to democratic principles."

"The attitude that the democracy should take toward great capitalistic organizations now is precisely that of Jackson toward the United States Bank which appeared as a menace in his day."

"The property rights of every man and of every organization of any kind must be respected, but today, as in the days of Jackson, it is necessary to declare that no power shall rise up greater than the government or menacing to the government."

"The democrats of today must declare and they must mean that no matter how great the wealth of individuals or corporations, that wealth must not be an irresponsible dominating power in government."

"The people beyond any question demand open primaries and the passage of direct nomination laws to bring the government directly under the control of the people."

"The enforcement of the eight hour law in government work, the enforcement of the law concerning the prevailing rate of wages is demanded by the people, and it is demanded by democratic principle as old as the Declaration of Independence."

"Democracy speaks also in denunciation of the great Chinese labor menace, which is now revived because of the introduction on a large scale of Chinese labor into Panama. The suggestion to introduce into this country, and to employ by the taxpayers of this country, a people of low intelligence and still lower morals is an attack upon the welfare, moral and material, of the American citizen."

"I accept the nomination of the democracy proudly, as I recall the great names from Jefferson to Tilden that the party has honored and that have honored the party. I accept the nomination gladly, realizing the opportunity for useful work which is offered today to all of those that may be elected to office as servants of the people and anxious to deserve the confidence of the people."

"I promise faithfully, if elected, to do all that I can as a citizen of the United States in office to realize and apply the great principles of the historic democratic party."

"And I pledge myself to work with others to rid the democratic party, and so far as possible all branches of government, of that plutocratic trust element that seeks to rule both parties and to destroy the democratic party utterly."

SEPTEMBER 31

President Roosevelt Anxious.

President Roosevelt, basing his conclusions upon information which has come to him from many sources all over the State of New York, regards the political situation in that State as full of danger. He has sent repeated warnings, both directly and through republicans of national prominence who have visited within the last few days in Washington, urging the republican campaign managers to spare no effort to get the full anti-Hearst vote registered today and Monday.

So far from taking the view entertained by the anti-Hearst leaders in New York, men who have come fresh from Washington and are arriving convinced that the election of Mr. Hearst is not only possible, but probable. Their attitude, which is known to have been taken from the press of the President, has made a deep impression in New York, because all the republican leaders know that Mr. Roosevelt is one of the most clear-sighted political leaders in the country. The President is taking a deep interest in the situation. He is insisting that every anti-Hearst vote will be needed on election day.

This is an "off year" in New York State politics. The record of such years proves that a large falling off in the republican vote is almost inevitable. Mr. Roosevelt himself was elected governor by a plurality of only 18,000 in 1898, and Mr. Odell, in 1902, was barely saved by a plurality of 8,000.

In spite of the democratic defection from Hearst, he will receive many thousands of votes which are always cast under the democratic emblem regardless of candidates. In addition he will have a proportion of the regular republican vote which has not yet been determined.

President Roosevelt has been informed that the defection to Hearst among the republican farmers of the State is much greater than the republican leaders have been led to believe, and this is the reason for his anxiety.

Tinnet Mite Grows Well.

The stock left Margaret Baldwin—weight, one pound, one ounce at the home of her surprised parents in Atlantic City, three months ago. The family doctor whistled his surprise when an excited young husband summoned him to the telephone, and his eyes opened still wider when he found the speck of humanity perfectly formed, but scarcely large enough to fill an ordinary tea cup. The stock had been expected on November 1. Wrapping the mite in cotton blankets and leaping into his automobile, the doctor raced to the infant incubator. Never had the superintendent seen nor heard of a baby so small and having lived. But Margaret thrived from the very start, and yesterday,
